

Too Many Tears

Buddy Guy

Don't know what lead up to this
I don't have a clue
How did things get tangled up
I never meant to hurt you

You should have been there for me baby Standing right by my side
Now things have changed and I've got to go Too many tears have been cried

Too many tears, too many tears oh I've cried in vain, I've cried in vain Ooh too many tears, too many tears oh they drown just like rain
oh too many tears

I've tried to be strong I've tried to do you right
But you left me all alone
One to many nights

Too many tears, too many tears oh I've cried in vain, I've cried in vain
Ooh too many tears, too many tears oh they drown just like rain
oh too many tears

When I needed you the most Emptiness was all I got I'm not gonna cry no more I've shed my last teardrop

Everything is gonna be ok baby both of us will survive lets be thankful for the love we shared and not for those tears that we cried

Too many tears, too many tears oh I've cried in vain, I've cried in vain
Ooh too many tears, too many tears oh they drown just like rain
oh too many tears

Too many tears, too many tears oh I've cried in vain, I've cried in vain
oh too many tears
