

Missing You

Budjerah

One, two, three, four

When will the morning come?
I'm tired of wasting time
But it's better for me
To have to suffer with you
Than alone up in my mind
Why does the evening sun
Have to leave me for so long
When I barely can sleep?
'Cause I'm wishing to be with everyone

I've been missing you near me
I've been missing you clearly
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
'Fore we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me?
I've been missing you near me
I've been missing you clearly
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
'Fore we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me?

When will the morning come?
I'm tired of wasting time
But it's better for me
To have to suffer with you
Than alone up in my mind
Why does the evening sun
Have to leave me for so long (For so long)
When I barely can sleep?
'Cause I'm wishing to be with everyone

I've been missing you near me
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
Before we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me? (Won't you come see me?)
I've been missing you near me
I've been missing you clearly
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
'Fore we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me?

When will my patience run out?
Not everyone will break the same way
I'm pushing the limits too far
I'm way out of my lane
When will my patience run out?
Not everyone will break the same way

I'm pushing the limits too far (Pushing too far)
I'm way out of my lane
My lane
My lane
My lane
And why does the evening sun
Have to leave me for so long
When I barely can sleep?
'Cause I'm wishing to be with everyone

I've been missing you
I've been missing you near me
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
Before we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me?
I've been missing you near me
I've been missing you, you, you
Are we strong enough?
Will we live long enough
To die freely?
Before we all turn to dust
Won't you come see me, me?
Me, yeah
