

Shoulda Coulda

Budjerah

I guess I shoulda just stayed in bed
I think I'm tired of these days right now
Shoulda pulled the sheets back over my head
I think I'm tired of the same type of slow motion

I'd rather have to let the rain fall than make the sun go shine
Said I'd rather have to let the rain fall
Nothing seems to work out
Nothing seems to work out

I can't shake this from my head
Damage from the last time that I bled, yeah
You know my feelings and emotions
Or I need a little lust to get me in motion

I'd rather have to let the rain fall than make the sun go shine
(oh I need a little love)
Said I'd rather just let the rain fall
Nothing seems to work out
Nothing seems to work out

You know my heart ain't just big enough to accomodate the sadne ss that I can just
So wake me, just let me be Nothing's gonna work out
Nothing seems to work out
You know my heart ain't just big enough to accomodate the sadne
ss that I can just Don't wake me, just let me be
Oh, nothings gonna work out
Nothing seems to work my way
Yeah
