

Therapy

Budjerah

Saying you need my love
Say you just need some therapy

You say what I wanna hear
'Cause it's easier than saying, it's complicated
And I hear you loud and clear
When you say I'm overreacting, just sick of you asking me

Over and over
Then tell me it's over
When I say it's complicated
And I don't reciprocate it

Maybe you lost your mind
You've lost your sanity
'Cause you're way too young and way too drunk to be
Saying you need my love
When you just need some therapy
I wanna say, say you just need some therapy

Only when no one's watching
You're at the front door knocking, sweet sweet talkin'
And only when no one's listenin'
That you're without a witness, then you'll admit that

Over and over
Then tell me it's over
So don't you call me crying
When you need someone to confide in

Maybe you lost your mind
You've lost your sanity
'Cause you're way too young and way too drunk to be Saying you need my love
When you just need some therapy
I wanna say, say you just need some therapy

Yeah
Yeah
(Saying you need my love)

Maybe you lost your mind (Yeah, yeah)
You've lost your sanity (Yeah, yeah)
'Cause you're way too young and way too drunk to be (Way too)
Saying you need my love (My love)
When you just need some therapy (Yeah, need my) Oh, honestly, think you just need some therapy (You just need, yeah, oh)
When you just need some therapy (Oh, yeah)
I honestly think you just need some therapy
