

Wash My Sorrows Away

Budjerah

Am I lost out here?
Or am I waking up to be your man?
It's the weight you fear
Oh, I'll try my best to understand, yeah

Oh, wash my sorrows away
The water's kinda warm in the evening
Take away my tears and it's healing
Wash my sorrows away
Like we were vibing at the beach in the summer
Where I can be free to recover
Oh, ooh, oh

Regretting every second I wasn't
Sharing my time with you
It doesn't matter why they're calling
You're the only thing to lose
I'm forgetting why we can't get back
It's driving me insane
It only matters when you're calling
You're the only thing I choose

Oh, wash my sorrows away
The water's kinda warm in the evening
Take away my tears and it's healing
Wash my sorrows away
Like we were vibing at the beach in the summer
Where I can be free to recover
Oh, wash my sorrows away
The water's kinda warm in the evening
Take away my tears and it's healing
(Take away my tears, yeah, yeah)
Wash my sorrows away (Oh)
Like we were vibing at the beach in the summer
Where I can be free to recover

You know I try
To keep myself out of mind
And you know I try
But I still keep you inside
And I try to keep myself from what's wrong
But this ain't right
How can it be right?
How can I be right?
Oh
