

Can't Trust A Soul

Bugzy Malone

I used to believe I could trust anybody
But now I'm feeling like I can not trust a soul
I was just trying to trust my own family
But they just tore me up and left me in a hole
I just don't know any more, know any more [x4]

I make the best out of these bad situations
Trials and tribulations, followed by allegations
A criminal, not with the greatest of reputations
But I'm in a good position just avoiding relegation
For talking bout the past, call this a mitigation
Cus I don't condone violence, or victimization
I'd much prefer silence, to reconciliation
If I don't trust my family fuck idle conversation
About who's making change, or the latest in the papers
I couldn't give a good God damn about your status
I might as well catch the first flight over to Vegas
Cus at least what happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas
If I can't trust my family, fuck trusting my niggas
And I certainly will not be trusting bitches with my figures
Just a loner, living with the snitches and the killers
In this crooked town, ran by the feds and the dealers

I used to believe I could trust anybody
But now I'm feeling like I can not trust a soul
I was just trying to trust my own family
But they just tore me up and left me in a hole
I just don't know any more, know any more [x4]

I didn't asked to be put onto this planet
Just a product of a bad romance, everybody's at it
While the rich get richer, the ghetto gets manic
Never listen to the papers cus they're just over dramatic
I don't know where I'm going, but I hope it's somewhere peaceful
Cus I'm tired of the lies the deceit
I can't bring myself to forgive, the spineless people
They fuck me off, then come crying to my feet
I must apologize to the girl, that went through the effort
To make this ting work, and I got up and left it
I can never love a girl, and channel my emotions
I make promises to stay true to my devotions

I used to believe I could trust anybody
I woulda died for every single member of the gang I was in
But now I'm feeling like I can not trust a soul
I've dropped in a hole, now I'm feeling like my fam's in the bin

I used to believe I could trust anybody
But now I'm feeling like I can not trust a soul
I was just trying to trust my own family
But they just tore me up and left me in a hole
I just don't know any more, know any more [x4]
