Bugzy Malone

Yo
Its Bugz
Criminal Love

And I don't really know right now what I'm supposed to do
Cause I've never met another like you
And I wanna be there till the very last part of this ting
But I swear we can never be true
I don't even care if they say that I'm loved up, loved struck
AAall she need is closure nah I got no composure
So you can call this that Criminal love it's that Criminal love

Yeah, it's that Criminal love
I'm a criminal she is already above
And her daddy didn't like me cause I'm semi arubs
I have tried being nice but the whole word is corrupt
Look, I'm from a place where
Nobody escapes there
Trying to make a change and not make mistakes here
So I don't talk to girls about my business
Forget about the ghetto
I have made my sacrifices, look at HipHop Heavy Metal

And this is just the life I know
Just another lonely morning
You don't know bout the struggle I was born into yo

I think we got the timing all wrong
A match made in heaven, but all the good is all gone
Cause I'm a fallen angel, in this crooked up world
And I guess I'm saying this is your song

And I don't really know right now what I'm supposed to do
Cause I have never met another like you
And I wanna be there till the very last part of this ting
But I swear we can never be true
I don't even care if they say that I'm loved up loved struck
Hit by an arrow of love
All she need is closure nah I got no composure
So you can call this that Criminal love it's that Criminal love

Look, it's that Criminal love
Since watching Oliver Twist
I've just been living absurd
Under the impression the Alfa dodges living it up
I steal harts break them into
And sealing them up
I took yours
Got scared, handed it back
You got a nigga paranoid, as if I'm handling crack
And I would never go to sleep without your hand on my back
A dry cry sisler rolling it all into a trap
It goes dry cry
Even tears even my hart cries
But who cares
Why does it have to be this way
Can't tell you to go can't tell you to stay

I can't tell you to stay
Cause I never knew what I wanted in the first place
So
Think I'm gonna tell you to go
Cause its looking like the end of the road

And I don't really know right now what I'm supposed to do
Cause I have never met another like you
And I wanna be there till the very last part of this ting
But I swear we can never be true
I don't even care if they say that I'm loved up loved struck
Hit by an arrow of love
All she need is closure nah I got no composure
So you can call this that Criminal love it's that Criminal love
