Bugzy Malone

Picture me sitting in the bat-cave
Three screens, one of them specifically for CCTV
Looking out onto the S63
I got it black to be a geek
And a spyder to dominate the street
They got me looking at the crossbow
I'm feeling weak at the knees at the thought of a not-guilty plea
Been avoiding the court room
I'm God-made I just pray God's the only one to judge what he sees
Told him that I need a uniform
It's no joke on the road, I feel wanted like a young Pablo
I got the safety deposit box, now I've got the biggest one around
I only deal with the fifty pound notes
I was gonna be a robber, now I'm wearing all the best clobber
Use my fingerprints to get into the vault
This is mafioso
Me I'm bringing back the cartel, I need a house on Millionaire's row

Be careful what you wish for
You do not want none of this war
What you clenching up your fists for?
It's about to be a real storm
I was gonna ship it to the harbor
But I could hear them chatting blah blah
You better bring your body armor
Cause there's about to be some drama

There's about to be some drama (there's about to be some drama)
There's about to be some drama
There's about to be some drama
Oh my lord
Drama (there's about to be some drama)
There's about to be some drama
There's about to be some drama
Oh my lord

Picture me sitting in the bat-cave on a dark night
Three screens just for the clothing design
Shit can really get militant if they violate
Just know whacking down is not in my DNA
Got the cabinet hand-made for the smoke grenades
Can't see into the room like a cloudy lemonade
Strictly dealing with the kilos
I'm self-made if you must know
It's a dangerous game that I play
One of the twins got nicked
The other's on the run try'na live
Dem man was in the ocean swimming with the big fish
When you livin' tax-free the judge doesn't like it
Let me save a little prayer for the kids (Amen!)
Kept it movin' on my fake friends (Amen!)
Dead silence never give a statement
Let em watch me from the outside on the pavement
Man don't need witness intimidation

Be careful what you wish for
You do not want none of this war

What you clenching up your fists for?
It's about to be a real storm
I was gonna ship it to the harbor
But I could hear them chatting blah blah
You better bring your body armor
Cause there's about to be some drama

There's about to be some drama (there's about to be some drama)
There's about to be some drama
There's about to be some drama
Oh my lord
