

Mrs Lonely

Bugzy Malone

Dark night, blacked out, blue jeans
I'm tryna turn over a new leaf
I'm tryna think for a minute, get deep
I get paid cah' I never been cheap
I need saving, I might go to the church on Sunday
But I never get sleep
I'm impatient when I get [?] but she just had me on seen
See me on my J's when I get low
Better mind out who you call bro
She told me that I'm like a best friend
That's how they step when they're tryna get close
I eat well like I'm on a canteen
Couple jail bars for my old team
I done a ten stretch in a routine
There's no level up if you don't dream
Then the dark sets in
She pops up and you start texting
But she don't text back
When the moons covered in glass
And the night sky's pitch black

When the clock strikes twelve, midnight
And you watch the world sleep tight
And the only girl tonight that's playing on your mind
Is Mrs Loneliness and lonely is the way she'll make you feel emptiness
You can't avoid her, she's beautiful, no less
She'll mesmerise you with the way she makes you feel wholeness
You can't avoid her

Success, no pain, no gain
We take risks cah' we never played safe
It's dangerous so we keep a low profile
Like it's high profile when you say names
It's training so I might go to the gym in the morning
And start hitting up weights
It's raining so I might go to the airport
Catch a flight, I'm tryna hit Spain
Big night, shots of the Don H
There's an attraction when you set pace
In the caption you can play games
You move fast when you're on the same wave
Influenced by spirit, suddenly you got lyrics
Hours just turn into minutes
How did you leave with her digits?
There's no rest for the wicked
In a room full of women
She's still laughing and grinning
Whether you're losing or winning
In the end or the beginning
There's no rest for the wicked

When the clock strikes twelve, midnight
And you watch the world sleep tight
And the only girl tonight that's playing on your mind
Is Mrs Loneliness and lonely is the way she'll make you feel emptiness
You can't avoid her, she's beautiful, no less
She'll mesmerise you with the way she makes you feel wholeness

You can't avoid her
