

Solo Yolo

Bugzy Malone

See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo
See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo

See now I can't understand
Cos she be on some silly shit that I can't understand
She's always tryna tell me that it's better when it's planned
But I hate living like a robot that's why I was in a gang
Why you was chillin' up in school
And writing in your book
While I was on the roads and no I didn't give a fuck
And don't think that you're special cos you got a 9 to 5
I told you that I'd catch you up, hey

Cos I be on that real life killing shit
Full time lyricist
Mind of a criminal
Thoughts of a hypocrite

I could never picture me escaping from the ghetto
So we better take a picture quick
Picture this I hit the roads just to clear my mind
And every time I meet a hoe just tryna turn me blind
They take my vision from me
And now she tryna take my card like she's my secretary
I tell her delete my number you're no longer necessary

See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo
See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo

See now I can't understand
They be on some nigga shit and I can't understand
They're always tryna tell me that it's better when you're signed
But I ain't signin' nuttin' for less than a couple hundred grand
And now they're tellin' me that I'm the man
And every time I speak they're reaching out to touch my hand
I'm not tryna impress nobody I'm doing me
That's why you'll always see me appreciating a loyal fan
No I'm not tryna be a pedestal guy
I'm just really trying to get this cheddar full time
Forget an occupation that involves a better four five
I must apologize to the Lord
Give me more time
But if you look into the system you'll find
There's no place for a criminal mind on a legitimate side
I'm just tryna see a nickel or dime without sinning or committing more crime

And that's real talk

See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo
See it's mad how the times change
And nuttin' was in my price range
And now they wanna play them mind games
Tell 'em I like to play solo yolo
