

The End

Bugzy Malone

You got me?

Okay, yo

They're gonna need me to live for this
They're gonna need me to live for this
They're gonna need me to live for this
Otherwise I'm a hypocrite
All I ask is you be inspired, be inspired
Be inspired, everybody gets tired
Yeah

Right now you're listening to the B. Inspired album
Let me just take out a second to thank all the supporters
The fans, everybody that turns up to the tours
Buys the CDs you lot changed my life
Lemme shout out my mum on this one
Bought me up from day one
Was there with me through thick and thin
The court rooms, the jail cells
Hold tight Ali Karim
Somebody that's been with me from day one
Gave me free studio time when I had nothing, thank you
Hold tight Darcy on this one, my right hand man
Had to stay in his spare room when I had nowhere to live
Oi [?] I love ya
See behind every strong man is a good woman
Till death do us part

They're gonna need me to live for this
They're gonna need me to live for this
They're gonna need me to live for this
Otherwise I'm a hypocrite
All I ask is you be inspired, be inspired
Be inspired, everybody gets tired

See anybody going through depression
You feel anxious when you come out the house
You're not alone and you can come out the other side
Trust me
Shout out Amarhi Bailey my original day one supporter
We're flying right now my guy

Olay olay olay olay, olay [repeated]
