

The Rainmaker

Bugzy Malone

Now they could tell that I was different
When I stepped up out that bedroom I made everybody listen
And I swear, I was like 7 in some dungarees
I hyped up telling everyone to look at me Now I would have the worst nightmares I be shoutin' for my mum and I would wake up and there's nobody there Does anyone remember me? Am I even a part of this family?
It's the drama that kept me alive, loneliness gave me a home
The roads gave me a name now I'm Bugzy Malone And imma rep Bugz until my face is in the books but I could pas s away tomorrow
I bet no one even checks if I'm there I'm not famous I'm just well known, do I enjoy being popular? H ell no
But I'm just so driven by the legacy that imma make it rain unt il everybody remembers me

They don't know that I'm there, I'm the rainmaker
Tell me if you see me when the rain dries up
No they don't love me I swear, I'm the rainmaker
Tell me if you see me now

Now they could tell that I was different when I got shipped out of prison for causing a demolition Sittin' in that sweatbox reminiscin' I remember 'avin a vision a real premonition
Now I'm not Martin Luther but I had a dream
And in this vision I was a king and I had a queen And I remember living real clean I didn't have to steal or deal with the fiends

Forget about the Joker fuck Bane imma villain to this game and they will remember my name I'll make it rain, tell 'em I'll make it rain, tell 'em I'll ma ke it rain, tell 'em I'll make it rain Forget about the Joker fuck Bane imma villain to this game and
they will remember my name
I'll make it rain, tell 'em I'll make it rain, tell 'em I'll ma ke it rain, tell 'em I'll make it rain

They don't know that I'm there, I'm the rainmaker
Tell me if you see me when the rain dries up
No they don't love me I swear, I'm the rainmaker
Tell me if you see me now

They don't know that I'm there, I'm the rainmaker
Tell me if you see me when the rain dries up
No they don't love me I swear, I'm the rainmaker

Tell me if you see me now
