

Always Only You

Building 429

I believed for so long
That I had to be strong
That it came down to me
I couldn't be weak
I couldn't be wrong

But I... I-I-I, I-I-I, I found a place
Where none of that matters

It's You
It's always and only been You
My shelter, my home and my refuge
The hope that I hold to
The strength that I run to
It's always only You

When my world starts to spin
And my knees start to bend
I know down to my core
You were faithful before
You'll be faithful again

It's You
It's always and only been You
My shelter, my home and my refuge
The hope that I hold to
The strength that I run to
It's always only You

All along You've been reaching
All along You've been singing over me
All along You've been speaking
Calling my name, calling my name
All along You've been reaching
All along You've been singing over me
All along You've been speaking
Calling my name, I hear You say...

It's You
It's always and only been You
There's nothing that I wouldn't do
I'm desperate to hold you
I died just to show you...
You
It's always and only been You
There's nothing that I wouldn't do
I'm desperate to hold you
I died just to show you
It's always only You
It's always only You
