

You took the part, hoping that it would be your break
Then you prayed to God you'd say your lines right
You looked so nice, cause you covered your face with Maybelline
And hoped the light would make you shine

But you feel just like a puppet
Because they're pulling all your strings
And you've become the person you swore you'd never be

And then the sky opens up
And the angels float down
They're singing, Heaven cover Angeline tonight
And all over the Los Angeles
The lights are going down
And they're singing heaven cover Angeline tonight

So you ride the wave, cause everything is going fine today
Then you take a breath and wait for the next set
O you write your name, and you cover the phrases with your tears
Cause maybe the water will blur the truth out

And you say that you're a loner
But I know you hate to be alone
And you say that you can't take it
Not one more day, not one more day

Then the sky opens up
And the angels float down
They're singing, Heaven cover Angeline tonight
All over the Los Angeles
The lights are going down
And they're singing heaven cover Angeline tonight

O Look at you, you're perfection in the making
Just look at you, you're believing all they're saying
But you're gonna be fine tonight

When the sky opens up
And the angels float down
When the sky opens up
And the angels float down

When the sky opens up
And the angels float down
They're singing, Heaven cover Angeline tonight
All over the Los Angeles
The lights are going down
And they're singing heaven cover Angeline tonight

We'll be praying, Heaven cover Hollywood tonight
