Building 429

Different
God, why'd you make me different
I can never fit in
Can't you see it's hard to be so
Different
Oh, the voices I keep hearing
Say I don't belong
Please, tell me they're wrong

Help me to live
Without hiding my scars
Knowing I've always been loved
Help to me live
With a wide open heart
Cause you say I'm more than enough
If I stand my ground and don't back down
I'll be proud of who I've become
Daring to fail
Willing to fall
Never to run, whoa
Never to run, whoa

Different
The way you work is different
Though I am so imperfect
Why can't I see that I am just Unfinished
Hard to see it when you're in it
Lord, I know, yes, I know, you are in it

Help me to live
Without hiding my scars
Knowing I've always been loved
Help to me live
With a wide open heart
Cause you say I'm more than enough
If I stand my ground and don't back down
I'll be proud of who I've become
Daring to fail
Willing to fall
Never to run, whoa
Never to run, whoa

You use the foolish to silence the wise
You used a cross to bring us to life
Your scars are a story and they testify
That nothing is wasted
I don't have to hide

I'm gonna live
Without hiding my scars
I'm gonna live
Cause you say I'm more than enough
If I stand my ground and don't back down

Daring to fail
Willing to fall
Never to run, whoa
Never to run, whoa
Never to run, whoa
Never to run, whoa

Willing to fail
Never to run
