

Lord You are, the light of my heart
Grandeur than the greatest stars
You are that I might be alive for thee
Lord You came, and breathed anew
A gift of life that will not cease
I am that You might be glorified
And I open my eyes to see
I'm asking You Lord reveal to me

Your majesty is captivating all of me
I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
We stand amazed breathless as we've come to face
Your majesty

Lord I come to this place
To bring honor to Your name
I stand just to sing of Your great fame
So I open my heart to You
Cause there's nothing else that I can do

When Your majesty is captivating all of me
I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
We stand amazed breathless as we've come to face

So shine down over your children
Reach out and touch us again
So shine down over your children
Reach out and touch me again

I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
When Your majesty is captivating all of me
I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
We stand amazed breathless as we've come to face
Your majesty
Your majesty
