

Revolution

Building 429

We are the promise
We are the dream
We are the raindrop that precedes a hurricane
We are the proclamation, the possibility
We are the river when you only see a stream

Singing hey now it's time to go.
Get your hands in the air and the feet off the floor.
Hey now it's time to go, get your hands in the Air.

I'm calling everybody around the world tonight

Welcome to the party it's a revolution
And I'm calling everybody we've just begun tonight
You are the future you're a revolution
Calling all the hopeless ones,
For the lost who've come undone
Wherever you've been
Let's start it again
I'm calling everybody, I'm calling everybody
You've been made new Yea You are the revolution.

We are expectation, the opportunity
We are the beauty when You only see the pain
We are optimism, we stand and we believe
That we are redemption in the middle of the shame

Singing hey now it's time to go
Get your hands in the air and the feet off the floor
Hey now it's time to go, get your hands in the air

I'm calling everybody around the world tonight
Welcome to the party it's a revolution
And I'm calling everybody we've just begun tonight
You are the future you're a revolution
Calling all the hopeless ones,
For the lost who've come undone
Wherever you've been
Let's start it again
And I'm calling everybody, I'm calling everybody
You've been made new, Yea you are the revolution

Calling all the broken ones wherever you may be
It's time to rise up to your new identity
No longer can we stand idly by and just watch the war when we're the one's who have the hope this world is searching for.

We are not weak
We've been made strong
If you believe
Then Sing along

Hey now it's time to go.
Get your hands in the air and the feet off the floor.
Hey now it's time to go, get your hands in the Air

I'm calling everybody around the world tonight
Welcome to the party it's a revolution
And I'm calling everybody we've just begun tonight
You are the future you're a revolution
Calling all the hopeless ones,
For the lost who've come undone
Wherever you've been
Let's start it again
I'm calling everybody, I'm calling everybody
You've been made new Yea you are the revolution
