

One To One

Buju Banton

What are you doing tonight?
Are you alone?
Thoughts of you come over my mind
I miss you to the bone
I'd like to come on over
Be in exile and discover a Girrrrl
We need to have a one to one

Me an you, we really do should have a one to one
I know that, I say we've got so much things to talk about
We must get together to sort it out
If in your mind you have some doubts
Come, and let me show you what I'm about

We need to have a one to one
Oh girl, no denying we should have a one to one

And I want you know that
I would not mislead you like those other guys do
I wouldn't use you count on me
My love will always be true

All I ask of you woman
Is to be pure and true just you be pure and true
If you can do that woman then I whoaaa

I say yeah we should have a one to one
Oh yeah we really do girl!
We should have a one to one
Oh right then..talk to me

What are you doing tonight?
Honey are you alone?
The thought of you come over my mind
I miss you to the bone

I'd like to come on over
Be in exile and discover girrrrl

We should have a one to one
Me and you we really do
We need to have a one to one

And I tell you once more
So much things to talk about
Come come come, let us get together to sort it out
If in your mind you have some doubt
Then! Woman let me show you what I'm about

We should have a one to one
Me and you, take my hand (come on!)
We need to have a one to one
Put your faith in I cause

I wouldn't mislead you like those other guys do
I wouldn't use you count on me
This love will always be true yeah!

We should have a one to one
Oh lovely woman! I say yeah!!
We need to have a one to one
Oh right then thennnn

Da da dum dum dum da dum
Dum da dum da da dum
Da dum dum dum da dum hey

So much things to talk about come come
Let's get together sort it out
If in your mind you have some doubt come come come
And let me show you what I'm about, YeAh!

We should have a one to one
Me and you, we really do
We need to have a one to one
