

PLANS

Buju Banton

Do you have plans tonight?
Girl, you need to let me know
What are your plans tonight?
Is the vibes high or low?
I wanna know

Mood is transient, it comes and go
Man a thug, thug who a roll with the flow
Want to see you inna sunshine rain or snow
Me pull off already, so don't try tell me, "No"
With work I've been busy, plus a lot of stage show
At times it even feel like my cup overflow
But there is just one thing I want you to know
Aye, I want you to know

When we are apart
You are always in my thoughts, yeah
When we are apart from each other
Know you're in my heart, yeah
Ooh, yeah

Baby girl, tonight the freeway is crazy
Riding through a storm, please stay with me
Try my best just to get home quickly
Meet me at the door, wear something sexy
Talk to me, baby
A who a text mi?
I guess you must be chilling with your homegirl, Lexi
I know a place that's open
Let's grab something, and catch up on time

When we are apart
You are always in my thoughts, yeah
When we are apart from each other
Know you're in my heart, yeah

Do you have plans tonight?
