

WALKED OUT

Buju Banton

Baby, I'm not crazy at all
Oh

When she walked out my life
Out of my life
Hurt so much, I nearly lose my mind
How could love be so unkind?
Be so unkind
Was all that we share a big waste of time?

All these memories still reign supreme
We were so close, nothing came between
I saw your face but it was just dream
Still can't figure out what it all mean
Some relations are not what it seem
Love did bubble, now lost it steam
Lust or passion, what does it all mean?
Is there any chance this love can redeem?

When she walked out my life
Out of my life
Hurt so much, I nearly lose my mind
How could love be so unkind?
Be so unkind
Was all that we share was just a waste of time?
Oh, girl

Really nobody don't know
When the going was slow
When we sell what we have and eat what we grow
When it was just you and I in the same boat a row
How come you want to diss me when things get slow?
I could never treat you no other way
Me and you together, going all the way
Love at first sight, missing from the first day
Ramp with me ruff, give me your childish play
Put on something sexy, babe, clean and sway
Blunt one up your sofa, me forget the ashtray
I'll be your weather man, your forecast today
Wet, sunshine, not cloudy

When she walked out my life
Out of my life
Hurt so much, I nearly lose my mind
How could love be so unkind?
Be so unkind
Was all that we share a big waste of time?
Oh, girl

All these memories still reign supreme
We were so close, nothing came between
I saw your face but it was just dream
Still can't figure out what it all mean
Some relations are not what it seem
Love did bubble, now lost it steam
Lust or passion, what does it all mean?
Is there any chance this love can redeem?

How could you walk out my life?
Out of my life
Hurt so much, I nearly lose my mind
How could love be so unkind?
Be so unkind
Was all that we share a big waste of time?
