She said, "Don't talk, Buju, let's make magic Oh, yeah, if you leave now, baby, it'll be tragic
You know, I know you a virgin and you ain't tried this"
But she say, "Pop a lil' pill and let's fly, baby, let's make magic"

Because memories don't leave like people do
They'll always stay with you
But I just hope that you don't
You don't feel uncomfortable
Memories don't leave like people do
They'll always stay with you
But I just hope that
You don't feel uncomfortable

I'll be your commander
Your commander in chief
Oh, baby, just surrender
I'ma put you at ease
I'll be your commander
Your commander in chief
Baby, just surrender
I'ma put you at ease

I'll be your commander
Your commander in chief
Baby, just surrender
I'ma put you at ease

A little this, little that, and the girl, she unbutton my jeans
And then, she whisper in my ear, "Let me do this, please"
I let her do it, she like to ride it, and it feel like a wave and I can't de ny it
I let her do it, she like to rock it, she tell me, "Don't stop," and I like to get it

Memories don't leave like people do
They'll always stay with you
But I just hope that you don't
You don't feel uncomfortable
Memories don't leave like people do
They'll always stay with you
But I just hope that
You don't feel uncomfortable

I'll be your commander
Your commander in chief
Oh, baby, just surrender
I'ma put you at ease
I'll be your commander
Your commander in chief
Baby, just surrender
I'ma put you at ease, see
