

Energy

BNXN

Should I remind you how it sounded
Oh yeah, it'll ring in the morning
It's you that I'm calling
All the things I'm needing, are the things you're giving
Ouu, that sexual healing, ouu that vibe, that feeling
That you're steady giving

All I really need is
Ener, energy
Ener, ener, energy
If you define define me
I need ener, energy
Ohh ener, energy
Ener, ener, energy
If you define define me
I need ener, energy
Ouhhh
I don't really go, I'll be coming back for more
I don't really go, I'll be coming back for more
I don't really go, I'll be coming back for more
I don't

Season after season don't need to remind me
Want to get you cozy, laying right beside me
Maybe it's the energy that you provide me
Oh, you're my weakness and your eyes remind me
Feelings are the only things that ain't defeated
Oh, I swear you do not know how bad I need it
Tender love and tender touch, am I asking for too much
Baby, don't you feel, don't you feel, don't you feel the rush
So if it all boils down to this
And you ask what I miss
I'll just say a kiss
Ouhh
If it all boils down to this
And you ask what I miss

All I really need is
Ener, energy
Ener, ener, energy
If you define define me
I need ener, energy
Ohh ener, energy
Ener, ener, energy
If you define define me
I need ener, energy
Ouhhh
I don't really go, I'll be coming back for more
I don't

We like Bonnie and Clyde I like
Rhythm and vibes you like
Kissing and drives like that
Saturday night
Oh yeah, we made sparkles fly

You like, the way I smile
I like, how you say 'hi'
I'm so, glad that you mine
Don't you, ever say bye, bye
Hmm
Oh, I feel like you're a drug that I'm addicted to
And somehow, I just cannot get enough of you
And I just can't get enough of you
