

I remember being 17
Back then my ex had me fucked up in the way of things
Had no direction I was messed up in my way of being
Had just my head on my shoulders and a little dream
I met you when I was 18
You cleared my conscience I swear you made me believe Pushed out the nonsense and everything in between
Me and my mind
I can't deny
You saved my life you know

Oh my darling
If I could have you again for a moment
I realize my mistakes I'm repenting
I left the lies you know you know
I realize
Oh my darling
If I could have you again for a moment
I realize my mistakes I'm repenting
I left the lies you know you know
I realize oh oh oh oh

First of all lemme say, where my baby eh
Nothing could compare any way (way way way way)
Only if I could get just another day
Just to see you smile anyway (way way way)
Nothing was the same any day I dey outside
Na my side I wish say you dey
Discombobulation always
Girl I'm not fine
Don't know what you want me to say
I miss it, I love it, submit it, I need it
I just hate to lose it, I mean
If you need somebody, baby please le mo mi
You understand what that means to me

Oh my darling
If I could have you again for a moment
I realize my mistakes I'm repenting
I left the lies you know you know
I realize
Oh my darling
If I could have you again for a moment
I realize my mistakes I'm repenting
I left the lies you know you know
I realize oh oh oh o
