

Bastards

Bulldozer

Greedy pretenders, political leaders always fighting fr your goal masters of illusions and self celebration you corrupt the whole world

All your leaders
All your power
Makes you bastards
You're all cowards Smiling commanders, reliable actors hiding your dishonesty
I can see your portrait, I know you will betray who believes in loyalty
You liars, cowards, bastards! (Don't forget) You'll die Clever deceivers for you believers stating they defend your rights democracy's realm, a promise for freedom they won't let you think or fight laicism or religion.They don't need the reason to demonstrate their right way they won't make you worry and never feel sorry

They'll promise you heaven now and forever
"Vote for me" they are asking you masters of conviction they will never show you If they need, they'll make you die
