

Can't Escape The Waves

Bullet For My Valentine

I can't escape the waves

It's the end of the line
I'm done with suffering
I didn't see this coming
I can't run from the waves
Breaking over and over again
Can someone throw a lifeline?
'Cause my own anchor keeps me under
Getting pulled by the tide
Sinking deeper and lower

Why won't someone just pull me aboard?
No more treading water
Why won't someone just drag me to shore
Before troubled waters take my life away?

I can't escape the waves
I can't escape the waves

Out of breath, out of time
Body shivering
Vision out of focus
Getting close to the end
Feeling colder and colder again
Can someone throw a lifeline?
'Cause my own anchor keeps me under
No hope when the light's barely breaking the surface

Why won't someone just pull me aboard?
No more treading water
Why won't someone just drag me to shore
Before troubled waters take my life away?

Why won't someone just pull me aboard?
No more treading water
Why won't someone just drag me to shore
Before troubled waters take my life away?

Take my life away (Take my life)
Take my life away (Take my life)
Take my life away (Take my life away), take my life

Why won't someone just pull me aboard?
No more treading water
Why won't someone just drag me to shore
Before troubled waters take my life away?

Why won't someone just pull me aboard?
No more treading water
Why won't someone just drag me to shore
Before troubled waters take my life away?

I can't escape the waves
I can't escape the waves
I can't escape the waves
(I can't escape the waves)

I can't escape the waves
(I can't escape the waves)
I can't escape the waves
