

My Reverie

Bullet For My Valentine

Lost in silence in my reverie
It's my happy place floating in the memories
Can I stay in this place where I belong?
No more vanity, no anxiety

(I just) I just need to be alone
(Just my) My reflection for company
('Cause this) 'Cause this world it leaves me cold
(And I'm) And I'm numb to it's symphony
Hear the symphony
Fade it out

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why
Why I won't fall to pieces

Eyes are open but blind to the light
Heart is frozen and trapped under ice
Need relief 'cause I'm broken and possessed
No more sanity, just reality

(I can't) I can't take this anymore
(No more) No more searching for a remedy
(So just) So just make another scar
(Slowly) Slowly bleeding out clarity
Find a remedy
Bleed it out

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why
Why I won't fall to pieces

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why
Why I won't fall to pieces

No more pain
I can't feel
No more pain
I won't heal

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why
Why I won't fall to pieces

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why
Why I won't fall to pieces

Cut me into pieces
Then try and bring me back to life
Just give me one good reason why

Why I won't fall to pieces

No more pain (I'll keep on bleeding it out)
I can't feel (I'll keep on bleeding it out)
No more pain (I'll keep on bleeding it out)
I won't heal (I'll keep on bleeding it out)

You cut me into pieces
