

Living like no one can do
You already lost your head
I found it on the sea bed
In clean water shimmering
There's really no reason to do a thing

Float on your own cloud
Drown in your own sea
But inside the [?]
Walk beside yourself
Live on your own land
Take all that you can
Soak up all your own love
Sell out your own self
Laughing like you're no-one else's fool
Feeling like no-one can tell you to

You already lost your head
I found it on the sea bed
You already lost your mind
There wasn't much to find
You already lost your head
I found it on the sea bed
You already lost your mind
There wasn't much to find
There wasn't much to find

Float on your own cloud
Drown in your own sea
But inside the [?]
Walk beside yourself
Live on your own land
Take all that you can
Soak up all your own love
Sell out your own self
Follow the fall straight
Into the slow road
Soak up the old face
Must it be so cold
Prepare for horsebacks
Take on a new race
Stuck with direction
Go at your own pace
Float on your own cloud
Drown in your own sea
Make you feel desperate
Walk beside yourself
Live on your own land
Take all that you can
Soak up your own love
