

All Truth

Bully

I'm tired
Think I'm ready to go
I can take myself home
If I leave right now, you'd never know that was spent
And you haven't changed a bit
You were always red
The last snitch waiting, begging to be
Led

I could change, it won't hold up
I tried so hard, it was never enough
We're fighting just so we can know
I do not owe you a thing

I'm out
I take one for the team
I was never really
One foot over the fence, caught between
Doubt
And [?]
You left me between terror
I'm just barely coming up short of [?]

I could change, it won't hold up
I tried so hard, it was never enough
We're fighting just so we can know
I do not owe you a thing

I could change, it won't hold up
I tried so hard, it was never enough
We're fighting just so we can know
I do not owe you
No, I do not owe you
No, I do not owe you a thing
