

Come Down

Bully

I hope you come to realize your worth
Tired devotion, passion is a curse
Right now I've got no gut to trust
Just second guessing and wishing luck
Disintegrate decisions in a whole new way
I push you out

I hate to hurt you but I had to
I hate to hurt you but I had to
I peel my skin off, hit the ground
This time you're allowed around
I'm burning from the inside out
I can't get up and I can't come down
I can't come down

Dig to find answers, I could dig so low
And I'm changing into a person I don't know
You've never steered me wrong when I'm right
Learned to keep calm, resolve the fight
I weigh out the good, the bad
It's good, it's great, the best I've had
But I stay detached and I don't feel at home

I hate to hurt you but I had to
I hate to hurt you but I had to
I peel my skin off, hit the ground
This time you're allowed around
I'm burning from the inside out
I can't get up and I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
I can't come down
