

Hard To Love

Bully

Few things are bleaker than Impermanence when joy begins
But I can show you low if you'd like
Cause I can't see the sun no matter how far I run
There's something else that's blocking my eyes

Hard to love
Hard to love

I can't trust anyone no matter how far they'd run
I'll find a way to make you lie
If you think you could love me now
Just want until you see this out
You'll be gone so quick I won't say goodbye

Hard to love
I'm too hard to love
Way too hard to love
I'm too hard to love

Drowning in the weight of shame
Deep breath baby it'll be okay
And if it all falls and they can't stay
Their loss you don't need them anyway

Hard to love
I'm too hard to love
Way too hard to love
I'm too hard to love

Hard to love
I'm too hard to love
Way too hard to love
I'm too hard to love
