Hate And Control

Bully

Hey, are you doin' all right today?
I know everyone's shaken up
Guess the power lies in hate
I mind you for speakin' up, I need your conversation

Ooh, I felt stuck underwater
I couldn't find my breath
Have I lost my voice completely?
Was it ever really there?
What a way to just believe in empathy and care

What is it about me
That makes you so uncomfortable?
Can we just exist without your hate and control?

Ohh, I'm slippin' into question
Vulnerable and aware
I'm overthinkin' words, I'm
Panicked by your stare
Will I lose my voice completely? How long has it been here?

Ohh, I'm stuck listenin' to you, easy
What you're sayin' isn't clear
You can't define a meaning
Who are you to stand me still?
You don't like it when I'm angry? Tough shit, learn to deal

What is it about me
That makes you so uncomfortable?
Can we just exist without your hate and control?

Hate and control
Hate and control
