

Just For Love

Bully

[?] happen all the time
To have you around, crossing lines
Never not been up to you
Unaware of what you do
And it just feels wrong to forgive
Knowing you will never have to live
Coming up, scratching at all your systematic doubt
And you will never know the feeling
You could never know the feeling

Clench my jaw again
I want a real reason

I can't stop this now

I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone

Coming down from where you stood
I can't depend the way I should
You discuss such taunted stuff
Trying to justify it all
And I would never talk to anyone the way I talk to myself
A perpetual disservice to my worth and to my health
I'm trying to learn to tame the feeling
I'm not passed concealing [?]

Clench my jaw again
I want a real reason

I can't stop this now

I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone

[?] and sick to my stomach
Regret and sick to my stomach
Repulsed and sick to my stomach
Repeat and sick to my stomach

Clench my jaw again
I want a real reason
I can't stop this now

I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
I won't do this just for love
I just wanna be alone
