

Like Fire

Bully

It was euphoric, I felt so high
Could've took my life, couldn't tell you why
And I'm up since 3am, I still feel like fire and
It was euphoric, I felt so high

Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you

She swung by my house, I started to cry
No one should be working their whole lives
I was just so happy, now I'm holding on tight
Everything's too much when you're stuck in the sky

I can feel it coming as my call goes through
Don't mean to stress you out, I just don't know what to do

Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you

Kinda haunts me now we don't talk anymore
Do we still hold the pact no one hits the floor
It's just they don't understand it like you did before
Kinda haunts me now we don't talk anymore

Ooooo ooooo ooooo
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
Ooooo God has lied to you
