

Lose You

Bully

Time's just a useless measurement of pain
You can take all the time in the world, things won't ever be the same
I could think about it all night
Run it over til it sounds right
I'd do anything to get it back now
Tell me what I gotta burn down
I know

To know you is a dream that
I'm lucky to be at
But you're getting older
It hurt but I told her 'cause I know

Barely moving, I'm still here
And the shades of blue that remind me of you are everywhere

To know you is a dream that
I'm lucky to be at
But you're getting older
It hurt but I told her 'cause I know

Either way I'm gonna lose
Either way I'm gonna lose you
Either way I'm gonna lose
Either way I'm gonna lose you

Figuring out
My sense of self is fading somehow
I'm free from the sound
No one's divided and nobody's waiting

To know you is a dream that
I'm lucky to be at
But you're getting older
It hurt but I told her cause I know

Either way I'm gonna lose
Either way I'm gonna lose you
