Bully

Every time I try to progress
I get further back at this
Starin' at the clock, watchin' my time drop
And nothin' makes sense

But I don't want a picture of me
I hate it so much, I hate it so much
I feel like it's starin' at me
I hate it so much, I hate it so much
Breaking through the wall
Everything's frozen now
Someone's in my room
A ghost is in my house

Break before I start to bend
Something's pissin' me off again
I'm tryin' to explain but I can't speak it out
Or even cough it up

And I don't want a picture of me
I hate it so much, I hate it so much
I feel like it's starin' at me
I hate it so much, I hate it so much
Breaking through the wall
Everything's frozen now
Someone's in my room
A ghost is in my house

And they're never gonna take me
I'm holdin' on as long as I can
No they're never gonna take me
And I'll never understand
