

Sundress

bülow

Phone rings, it's hard to stand still Till I hear the tone ring
Volume up, I don't want to miss a damn thing
Last night, I fucked up
Hope to God it ain't no last fight
Can't sleep, yes it's gonna be a long night

See you twirling in my sundress
High tide doesn't come in yet
Did no one ever tell you?
Your eyes match the sunset
I'm running to find you
But you know where I left you
Did no one ever tell you?
Your eyes match the sunset

I see the horizon steal
The sun from the sky
And it burns my eyes
But I can't look away
It's in my heart like a grain
Of sand, let it slip
Through your fingers
I can't look away
