

Look Back In Anger

Bunbury

"You know who I am" he said
The speaker was an angel
He coughed and shook
His crumpled wings
Closed his eyes and moved his lips
"Its time we should be going"
(Waiting so long, I've been waiting so, waiting so)

"Look back in anger
Driven by the night
Till you come"
(Waiting so long, I've been waiting so, waiting so)
"Look back in anger
See it in my eyes
Till you come"

No one seemed to hear him
So he leafed through a magazine
And yawning rubbed the sleep away
And very sane he seemed to me
(Waiting so long, I've been waiting so, waiting so)

"Look back in anger
Driven by the night
Till you come"
(Waiting so long, I've been waiting so, waiting so)
"Look back in anger
Feel it in my voice
Till you come"
