

Awaken the Nightmare

Burden Of Grief

Run, let it run
See the blood drips down her face
Pray, for your life
But you won't escape the knife'
Fire, your desire
Your fate was sealed today
Die, by the way
As your nightmares have foreseen

You're lying awake and fear what you've seen tonight
You're drifting away, your nightmare dreams have led you astray
You're not alone and you're trying to face the unknown,

Cry, let her cry
Your life won't last too long
Bleed, bleed her dry
My work will soon be done
Passion, your obsession
You can't restrain your need
Die, by the way
Is your nightmares have foreseen

You're lying awake and fear what you've seen tonight
You're drifting away, your nightmare dreams have led you astray
You're not alone and you're trying to face the unknown

Run, let it run
See the blood drips down her face
Pray, for your life
But you won't escape the knife'
Fire, your desire
Your fate was sealed today
Die, by the way
As your nightmares have foreseen
