

Fearless Heart

Burden Of Grief

Losing hope is losing fear, my son
Don't try to stop now, poll better run
See the fire - barns from the sky
The moon shines blood red, so baby cry for help

Come on and call my name

I am the one - the everlasting spell
I am the watchdog from heaven and hell
The controller of balance, the controller of pain
I am the one - the one who calls your name.

I want you
I want you
I want your life

See the fire - hums from the sly
Fear the master - your blood runs dry
You see me coming - you hear my call
Fearless heart - I'll let yaw fall

The night has come and you're wide awake
The sunshine's gone and all dressed in black
You see me coming - you hear my call
But don't fear me, just only cry for help

Come on and call my name

I am the one - the everlasting spell
I am the watchdog from heaven and hell
The controller of balance, the controller of pain
I am the one - the one who calls your name.

I want you
I want you
I want your life
