

The Final Chapter

Burden Of Grief

Deny - your faith - just watch your world below
Destroyed - in ruins - reflection of your soul
Too late to heal me!

At the end of time, when all hope is dying
Raise your fist into the sky and pray for a sign

Consume - wear down - your dreams have turned to greed
You take - control - I'm scared of what I see
Too late to heal me!

At the end of time, when all hope is dying
Raise your fist into the sky and pray for a sign
Give me answers, give me a reason
This is not the final chapter
Give me answers, give me a reason
This is not the final chapter

Deny - your faith - just watch your world below
Too late to heal me!
Destroyed - in ruins - reflection of your soul
Too late to heal me!

Rise up - incense- afraid to close my eyes
Just hear - my voice - we will regret this crime
Too late to heal me?

At the end of time, when all hope is dying
Raise your fist into the sky and pray for a sign
Give me answers, give me a reason
This is not the final chapter
Give me answers, give me a reason
This is not the final chapter
