

Turmoil to the Void

Burden Of Grief

Stay, we're fighting side by side
To stand against this spite
Cry, to find a way out in time
Behind those mighty walls

Trapped behind those massive walls
Captivated in the cold
Cry to find a way out in time
Escape from all the fear inside

Stay, we're fighting side by side
Stay, to stand against this spite
Cry, to find a way out in time
Behind those mighty walls

Hear me now this time - turmoil to the void
Fear me - the voice of destiny
Hear me now this time - turmoil to the void
Fear me - the voice of destiny

Captured by the claws of hell
Surrounded by the troops of might
But we stand like thousand men
Escape from all the fear inside

Stay, we're fighting side by side
Stay, to stand against this spite
Cry, to find a way out in time
Behind those mighty walls
