

Beyond The Breaking Point

Burden Of Life

Verse I:

Speeding through the night
Hanging on the edge of madness
My hands grip so tight
A loaded peacemaker
Reason out of sight
I will kill tonight

Verse II:

Sheer insanity,
How could I've not seen beyond all of this?
It eats away at me
I will fulfill my portion of this contract
So I will kill tonight
With reason out of sight

Chorus:

It was not meant to go this way
Welcome to judgement day
This gruesome deed is the key
To set my dead heart free

Verse III:

Target in my sight
One bullet away from freedom
Fullmoon shining bright
Lighting the stage for our final dance
Come into my arms
I am taking arms

Duett:

W: How could you do this to me? Want me to die?
M: How could I want you to die?
W: All this time I did wait for you
M: How was I injected with this hate for you?

Bridge:

I will take her down with me
My servant for eternity she'll be
I made a deal to bring you here
In exchange for her soul after she died
Farewell, dear puppet
Leave for fresh fields when your tears have dried

Lead: Schafberger

Chorus:

It was not meant to go this way
Welcome to judgement day
This gruesome deed is the key
To pry your jailed soul free
