

Forget What You Know

Buried In Verona

Dawn upon a new day,
as for this light it blinds my eyes,
finding my direction last goodbyes for a dying world.
Breaking through the habit from all the stories we've been told
hiding from the whispers the truth in a lying world,

Save yourself

So here we go on a mission to find ourselves,
I hope you never think it's too late for you friends and if you don't think that you can make it just push until you break it,
this is you're life,
this is the life that I chose to leave behind,

Go there is another one,
stop wasting you life you know you only got one,
finding my direction last goodbyes for a dying world.
Ask yourself the question is this really what you wanted,
hiding from the whispers,
the truth in a lying world,

Open up your eyes, you see beauty where I see pain, you're lost in oceans with yourself to blame,

Save yourself

So here we go on a mission to find ourselves,
I hope you never think it's too late for you friends and
if you don't think that you can make it just push until you break it,
this is you're life,
this is the life that I chose to leave behind,

So here we go on a mission to find ourselves,
I hope you never think it's too late for you friends and
if you don't think that you can make it just push until you break it,
this is you're life,
this is the life that I chose to leave behind,
