

Unbroken

Buried In Verona

Break what needs to be broken
Save what needs to be saved
I'll bleed for this if that is what it takes
'Cause this is war
This is war

I'm crawling through the dead
The ghosts that call my name
With a shadow in my heart
And I'm swallowing the pain
I'm falling down again
I'm broken on the inside
The pieces never mend
And I'm dying to forget

Try, you know we got to survive
Is this as bad as the last time?
I need to find the strength again
I'll bleed for this if that is what it takes
'Cause this is war
This is war

I'm crawling through the dead
The ghosts that call my name
With a shadow in my heart
And I'm swallowing the pain
I'm falling down again
I'm broken on the inside
The pieces never mend
And I'm dying to forget

We can't run any longer
We can't step to the side
We need to face these feelings
We need to fight for life
This is war
