

Enemy Inside

Burn Halo

Can I get a little piece of mind?
Gotta medicate so I'll take what you got Seems I'm always running out of time.
'Bout to go insane
Another fix that I bought

You sink your teeth into the weak
And wrap yourself around the soul
As the poison fills my veins you watch until my blood turns cold

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside

Then you came to me and called my name
A victim to your game, to your deception
But all I wanted was a little taste
I need a new escape, not another addiction

Infected by the choice I made
No where to run
I've dug my grave
So venomous
It makes me sick
The price I pay
You deadly grip

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside

I see your face on the horizon
(I see your face on the horizon)
I know the worst has yet to come
(I know the worst has yet to come)

I see your face on the horizon
(I see your face on the horizon)
I know the worst has yet to come
(I know the worst has yet to come)

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside

You are the one, the enemy inside
You are the hell, the devil in my mind
Now I'm just a victim here of the enemy
You are the enemy inside
