

If I'm Lying

Burna Boy

Every day, I just dey give thanks for life
Know how to move 'cause I know sacrifice
Lose control, still hold on tight
Won't be the only time
I'm a soldier, I know how to fight
I make fire when it's cold in the night
If you need a shoulder to cry
Then I'll give you mine

And if I'm lyin'
Let the ocean and seas start dryin'
Let the birds in the sky stop flyin'
All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin'
And if I'm lyin'
Let the ocean and seas start dryin'
Let the birds in the sky stop flyin'
All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin'

Won't be the only time
Only time
Only time
Won't be the only time
That you're gonna get your heart broken, yeah
You got to learn how to ride the motion

And if I'm lyin'
Let the ocean and seas start dryin'
Let the birds in the sky stop flyin'
All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin'
And if I'm lyin'
Let the ocean and seas start dryin'
Let the birds in the sky stop flyin'
All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin'

Zero
All that I get is zero
Rain fallin' on my window
That's why I sleep under my pillow
Woah, woah, woah
These days I don't sleep no more, no
So, my eyes open wide
At least I know I'm alive

If I'm lyin'
Let the ocean and seas start dryin'
Let the birds in the sky stop flyin'
All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin'
If I'm lyin'
(Let the ocean and seas start dryin')
(Let the birds in the sky stop flyin') Lyin'
(All the trees in the world start dyin', all start dyin')
