

Elevator

Burning Brides

I'm going down and I want you to know
I've got the elevator deeper myself, oh
And they've been watching you from the time of your birthday
We are going down on the city and

You are right
You are right

Being twenty miles and I want you to know
Whenever I make it but I still got to go, girl
And I own every fucking thing that you know now
You are never wrong in the city of fun

You are right
You are right
