

Only the Wrong Will Survive

Burning Point

You act like a king of 1000 dreams
The superstar of mankind

You`re blocking my view
you`re not worth the pain
The chances are few
still you drive me insane

Masters of mediocrity
The rulers of the world

You`re blocking my view
you`re not worth the pain
The chances are few
still you drive me insane

Always why is it always
Only the wrong will survive
No change there is no change
Only the wrong will survive

To the eyes of the world you`re nowhere in sight
Who`s the ruler of mankind

From the start to the end this world of make believe My wounds do not mend
i`m going insane

Always why is it always
Only the wrong will survive
No change there is no change
Only the wrong will survive

Wings of fire burn down my nightmare Endless desire will keep my flame...keep my flame alive
