

For Eternity

Burning Witches

Oh just take me home
To the promised land
Oh I am lost, a heathen
Getting spit in the face
A case of human waste
When did it come to this
Oh

In times of shifting sand
Is it time to make amends?
Where's the hand? The hand of Odin
Oh it's an eye for an eye
I can't believe it, but it's either fight or flight
Yeah standing the test of time in chaos and pain

Cries ring through the night, it's a fearless fight
Sworn an oath for eternity
It's a world of fools, men reduced to tools
Oh life for eternity, eternity yeah
For eternity we strike (We strike)
Say a prayer before you die (We die)
For all of this we kill (We kill) (Kill, kill, kill, kill)
Until all evil's slain!

Going from rituals and runes
To only rags and ruins
Your children traumatized and you horrified
Oh it's an eye for an eye
I can't believe it, but it's either fight or flight
Yeah standing the test of time with you mortified

Cries ring through the night, it's a fearless fight
Sworn an oath for eternity
It's a world of fools, men reduced to tools
Oh life for eternity, eternity yeah
For eternity we strike (We strike)
Say a prayer before you die (We die)
For all of this we kill (We kill) (Kill, kill, kill, kill)
Until all evil's slain!

Pray for another day
When the struggle falls away
And the debt is paid
Hope for a better day
Where peace is there to stay
And all evil is slain

Cries ring through the night, it's a fearless fight
Sworn an oath for eternity
It's a world of fools, men reduced to tools
Oh life for eternity, eternity yeah
For eternity we strike (We strike)
Say a prayer before you die (We die)
For all of this we kill (We kill) (Kill, kill, kill, kill)
Until all evil's slain!
