

Inquisition

Burning Witches

The ones you trust
Will give you up
In this crusade
To purge the human race

Betraying whoever might save your skin
Just being alive becomes a mortal sin

Raise the banner higher
Erase all the liars
Heresy will make way for the holy inquisition
Nothing can defy them
Atone or surely die
Burned to dust
There is no resurrection for you and your spawn

Inquisition, inquisition, inquisition
For the holy inquisition

Given up kin
To keep the faith
Fallen from grace
Confessed in vain

Betraying whoever might save your skin
Just being alive becomes a mortal sin

Raise the banner higher
Erase all the liars
Heresy will make way for the holy inquisition
Nothing can defy them
Atone or surely die
Burned to dust
There is no resurrection for you and your spawn

Inquisition, inquisition, inquisition
For the holy inquisition

Ahh inquisition

Raise the banner higher
Erase all the liars
Heresy will make way for the holy inquisition
Nothing can defy them
Atone or surely die
Burned to dust
There is no resurrection for you and your spawn

Raise the banner higher
Erase all the liars
Nothing sacred is safe for the holy inquisition
Nothing can defy them
For young and old alike
Your broken bodies won't be resurrected
When the return dawns

Inquisition, inquisition, inquisition
